PUBLIC NOTICE

RE: Journalist Guidance - Alabama State Conference of the NAACP v. Marshall (Case No. 2:24-cv-00420-RDP)

This Public Notice provides administrative guidance related to the following pending case: Alabama State Conference of the NAACP v. Marshall (Case No. 2:24-cv-00420-RDP). Please refer to the Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) system for case-specific details.

A motion hearing is scheduled to begin at 10:00 a.m. CT on July 31, 2024, in the Special Proceedings Courtroom, located on the 8th floor of the Hugo L. Black U.S. Courthouse, 1729 5th Ave. N., Birmingham, AL 35203. Courtroom gallery seating will be first come, first served, and seats left vacant will be filled by members of the public awaiting entry into the courtroom.

Under Local Rule 83.2, photography and broadcasting of any kind are prohibited “in or from the courtrooms or their environs during the progress of, or in connection with, any judicial proceeding . . . .” Accordingly, no visitors will be allowed to operate any electronic devices within the courtroom. Visitors may be removed from the courtroom for any reason at the discretion of Court Security Officers without question.

The Jury Assembly Room on the First Floor will act as a Media Room, where audio and video of the proceedings will be streamed and certain electronic devices such as laptops and cell phones may be used. This venue is provided as a courtesy for media and to allow for overflow space. Photography, audio recording, video recording, and broadcasting of any kind are prohibited in the Media Room. Both the Special Proceedings Courtroom and the Media Room will be opened to the public at 9:30 a.m.

Clerk’s Office staff are prohibited from providing information to media or the public related to pending case actions before the court. Journalists may contact the Clerk’s Office with inquiries via email at media@alnd.uscourts.gov. The inbox is monitored by the Clerk of Court and Chief Deputy Clerk of Court. Submission of a question or request does not guarantee that a response will be provided, but the Clerk’s Office will make every effort to respond to all inquiries.
