

Pro Hac Vice Admissions:

Local Rule 83.1(b) provides in part:

Any attorney who is not a member of the bar of this court but who is admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the district in which (or before the highest court in the state in which) such person resides or regularly practices law, may, upon request and payment of the prescribed fee . . . be allowed to appear in a case pro hac vice by an order of any district judge.

To comply with the requirements of that Rule for pro hac vice admission, Judge Bowdre requires that the applicant provide either (1) a certificate of good standing from the United States District Court for the district in which the attorney resides or practices law, or from the highest court of the state in which the person resides or (2) an affidavit or declaration completed by the applicant that attests to the courts to which the attorney is admitted to practice.
